We, the class of 1958, dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Richard P. Sandberg. As class advisor you have given your time unselfishly to help us carry on successfully our many projects, and your hard work as yearbook advisor will never cease being appreciated. In addition you have been an inspiring teacher and a friend to all -- a truly wonderful person.

A Farewell

This year Mr. Harry R. Stevens, who has been with the school for forty-two years, is leaving us. During this time he has been a friend to every student, and for many years he coached school teams to victory. We shall miss him very much.

Freshman Year

OFFICERS

President GAIL BOUSQUET
Vice-President JOHN WHEELDEN
Secretary LINDA DESPRES
Treasurer AILENE MATUSZEK

A house is only as strong as the foundation upon which it is built. During the past four years we, the class of 1958, with the help of the faculty have been laying this foundation.

September 1954-	We gathered at Grafton Junior-Senior Memorial High School to begin our work.
October 1954-	At the traditional Freshman Reception, which was held in the auditorium, we were greeted by the Seniors, and we met our big brothers and sisters, after which we all felt welcome.
April 15, 1955-	We held a Sock Hop with Mel Miller as Disc-Jockey. This turned out to be very successful, and it was loads of fun.
June 11, 1955-	Towards the end of the year the class trip became a popular subject. We decided on Nantasket Beach. Mr. Ahlin, Mr. Wheeler, and Mr. Jackson were chaperones on this trip.
June 15, 1955-	We successfully completed our Freshman year and were already looking forward to being Sophomores.

Treasurer CONNIE FLYNN

September 1955-

We were now beginning our Sophomore Year with the hope of completing it as successfully as our Freshman Year.

May 11, 1956-

The first undertaking of our Sophomore year was the Sophomore Hop, which was called "Star Dust." Music for this dance was provided by Kenny Durant's Orchestra.

June 11, 1956-

We again turned our thoughts to the annual class trip, and again we decided on Nantasket Beach, since we had enjoyed ourselves so much our Freshman Year.

Vice-President JOHN WHEELDEN

Secretary LINDA OHMAN

Treasurer CONNIE FLYNN

September 1956-

With the passing of summer we were anxiously looking forward to beginning the tasks of the Junior year.

October 19, 1956-

The first event of our Junior year was the Harvest Hop, at which the school Disc Jockey Club provided the music.

April 5, 1957—This was the night for our Junior Cabaret. We put on two one-act comedies, under the supervision of the chairman, Kay Richardson. The first, "Let's Make Up", was directed by Mr. William Kelly; the second, "Father's Bargain Day", was directed by Mr. William Ormand.

Smile, everybody!

Looks as if somebody's leaving!

May 10, 1957—The members of the National Honor Society were installed on this date. The principal speaker was Mr. George Wells. The members of the Junior Class installed were: Carol Campanale, Daniel Clark, John Fleming, Kay Richardson, Ailene Matuszek, Suellyn Pond, and John Wheelden.

May 17, 1957—Now it was time for the biggest event in our Junior year, the Prom. Jack Wheelden was chosen general chairman, and Suellyn Pond was put in charge of decorations. The theme was "Moonglow". On this night Eddy Sham's orchestra played opposite a beautiful flower garden, where queen Kay Richardson reigned surrounded by her court, consisting of Carol Hodgdon, Judy Buzzell, Ailene Matuszek, Judy Hentz, Carol Campanale, and Gail Bousquet. We followed an evening of dancing by dining at "The Lord Fox".

May 23, 1957—We as Juniors put on for the Seniors the annual Junior-Senior Tea, which was held in the Cafeteria. This event was enjoyed by both the Juniors and Seniors. Pat Ryerson was chairman, and Marsha Roney sang a few selections for us while Judy Hentz played the piano.

Anyone for food?

The class presidents give their speeches.

The Seniors are served, and we wait patiently.

Then we get our turn.

June 8, 1957—We again took a trip to Nantasket Beach, which now was becoming a habit, but a very pleasant one.

Senior Year

As we begin our Senior year, it hardly seems possible that this is our last year at Grafton High. Our class officers were: President — John Wheelden; Vice-President — Connie Flynn; Secretary — Linda Ohman; Treasurer — Nancy Simoneau.

October 4, 1957—We held a Freshman Reception to welcome the new students into their first year of high school life. Each of the Freshmen was given a big brother or sister, after which we got acquainted with them during an informal tea.

The Seniors wait for the Freshmen to come in.

Have some?

The Freshmen meet their teachers.

Talking and eating, the Freshmen get acquainted with the Seniors.

Looks as if everyone enjoys the food.

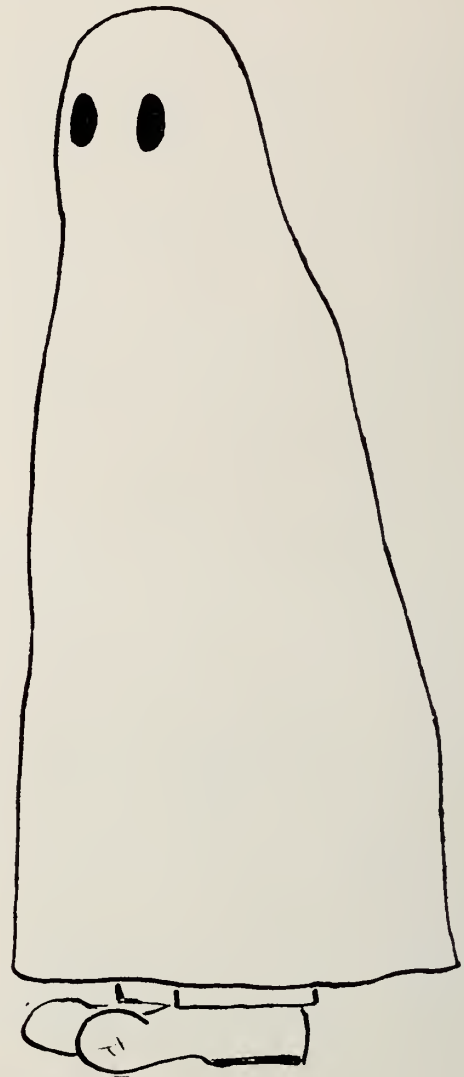

Judy, Kay, Jack, and Carol speak to the Freshmen.

December 20, 1957 — The Senior Play, called "This Ghost Business," was presented under the direction of Mr. Bernard Mohan. This night will never be forgotten by the members of our class, as it was a complete success.

Yipe !!

Looks as if Barry doesn't like this.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1958, being of sound mind and reasonable intelligence, do hereby will and bequeath to the underclassmen the following:

I, John Adams, leave my spectacular blush to Norma Dannenhauer, whose hair it just matches.

I, Thomas Bish, leave my Southern accent to Marcel Boudreau.

I, Ethel Bolack, leave my fine wardrobe to Joan Lundgren, who already has a good start.

I, Gene Brosnihan, leave my lavender paint job to some deserving Junior.

I, Judith Buzzell, leave my long brown hair to my sister Janice.

I, Carol Campanale, leave my vebelfetser to anyone who can pronounce it.

We, Beverly and Barry Ciccone, leave our petiteness to the Kelly twins.

I, Daniel Clark, leave my job as editor of the yearbook to my successor.

I, Floyd Danielson, leave my modesty to Terry Arnold.

I, Robert Danielson, leave my accumulated wisdom to Ronald Lukas.

I, Allan Flamholtz, leave my front seat in English IV to a talkative Junior.

I, John Fleming, leave my athletic skill to Rod Corey.

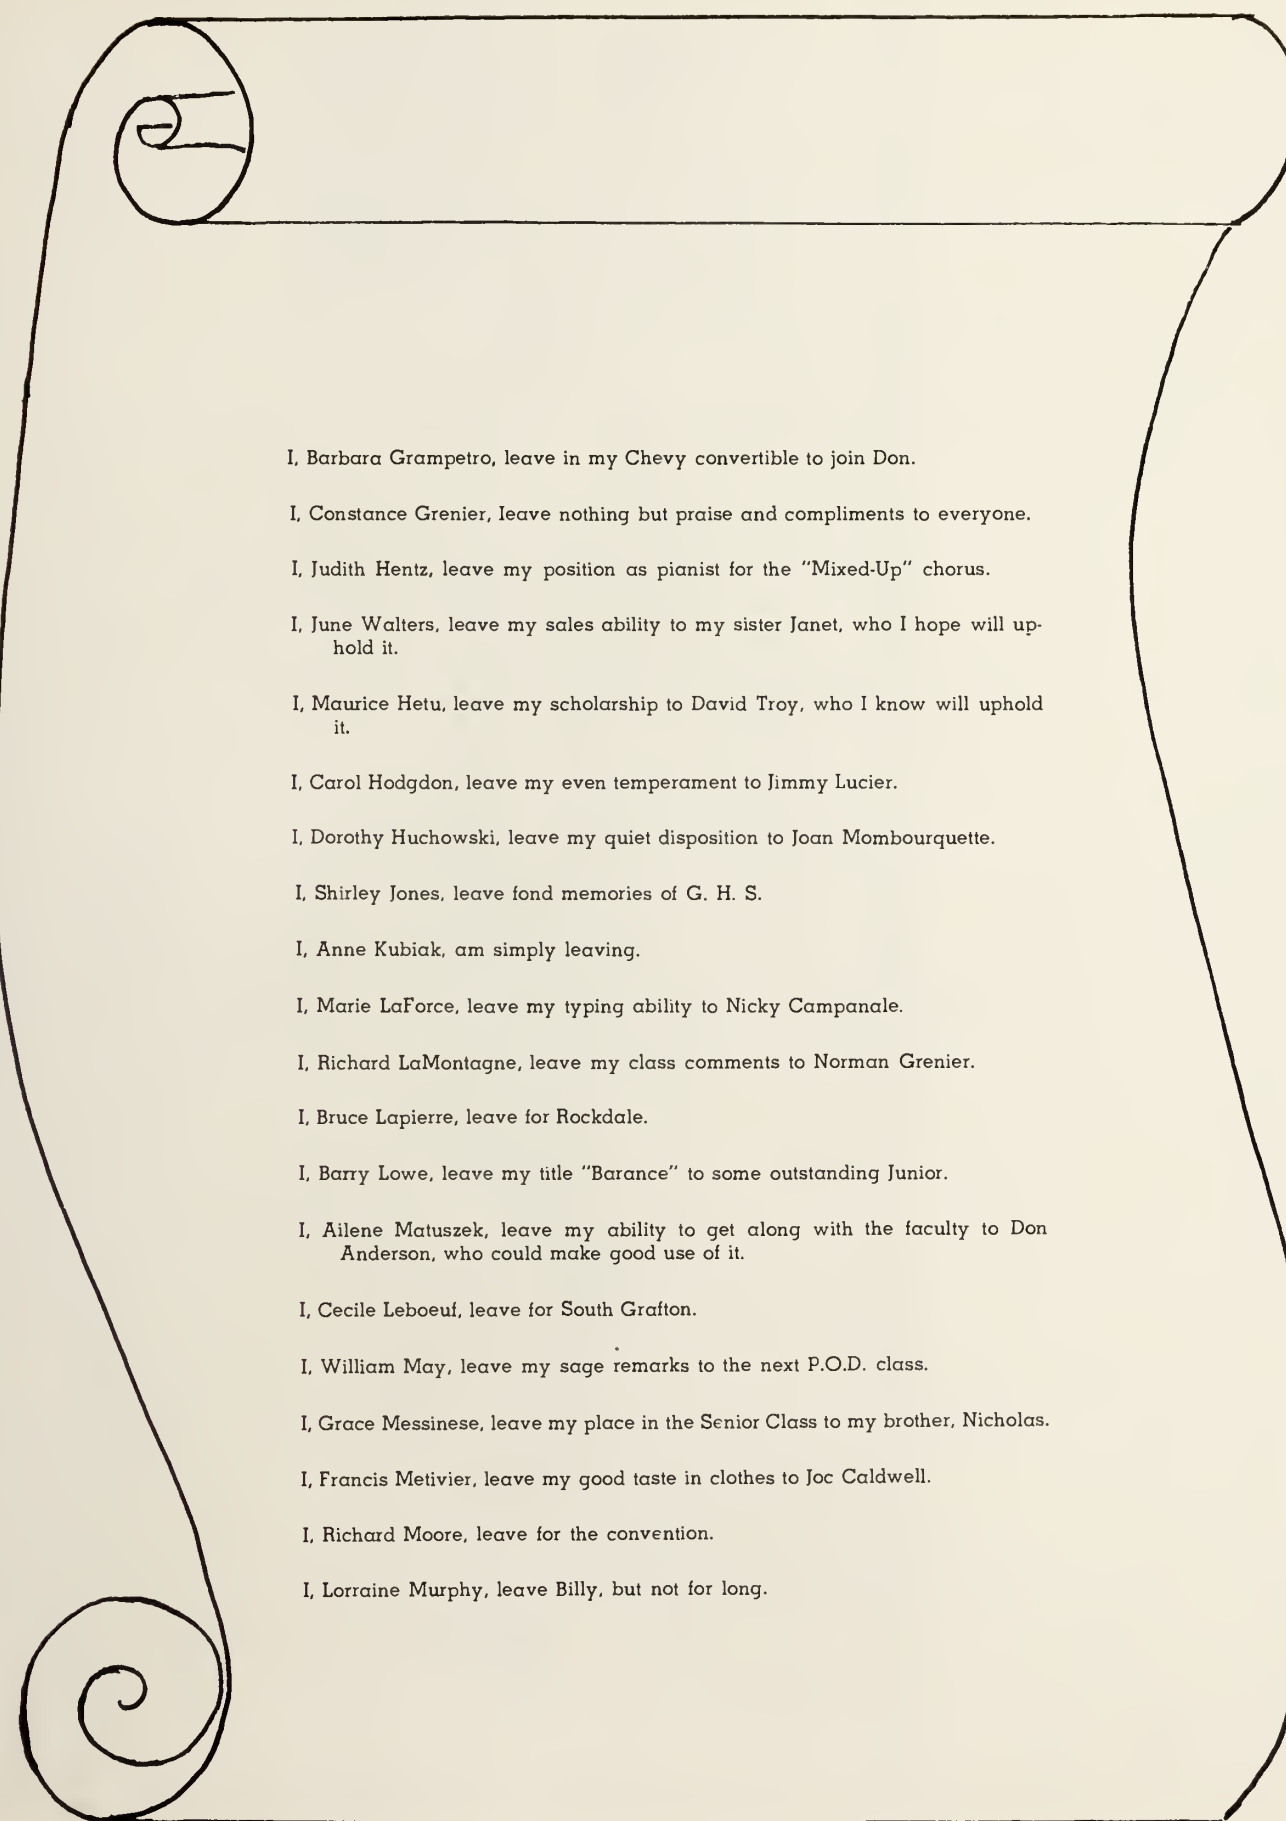

I, Cornelius Flynn, leave behind exhaust fumes and burnt rubber, now depart.

I, Alberta Fontaine, leave as quietly as I came.

I, Leo Froment, leave, regretfully, Barbara.

I, Roger Gardzina, leave to shoot "coon".

I, Norman Goulet, leave my nickname "Gus Gus" for good, I hope.

I, Barbara Grampetro, leave in my Chevy convertible to join Don.

I, Constance Grenier, leave nothing but praise and compliments to everyone.

I, Judith Hentz, leave my position as pianist for the "Mixed-Up" chorus.

I, June Walters, leave my sales ability to my sister Janet, who I hope will uphold it.

I, Maurice Hetu, leave my scholarship to David Troy, who I know will uphold it.

I, Carol Hodgdon, leave my even temperament to Jimmy Lucier.

I, Dorothy Huchowski, leave my quiet disposition to Joan Mombourquette.

I, Shirley Jones, leave fond memories of G. H. S.

I, Anne Kubiak, am simply leaving.

I, Marie LaForce, leave my typing ability to Nicky Campanale.

I, Richard LaMontagne, leave my class comments to Norman Grenier.

I, Bruce Lapierre, leave for Rockdale.

I, Barry Lowe, leave my title "Barance" to some outstanding Junior.

I, Ailene Matuszek, leave my ability to get along with the faculty to Don Anderson, who could make good use of it.

I, Cecile Leboeuf, leave for South Grafton.

I, William May, leave my sage remarks to the next P.O.D. class.

I, Grace Messinese, leave my place in the Senior Class to my brother, Nicholas.

I, Francis Metivier, leave my good taste in clothes to Joc Caldwell.

I, Richard Moore, leave for the convention.

I, Lorraine Murphy, leave Billy, but not for long.

I, Lloyd Nolan, leave my supercalifacious attitude to any Junior who can spell it.

I, Barbara Norris, leave my sincerity and conscienciousness to Pat Kelly.

I, Allen Peterson, leave hand-in-hand with Joan.

I, Carol Pichette, leave my cheerfulness to June Burke.

I, Suellyn Pond, leave my efficient management of the candy sale to the Junior Class, hoping that they will be as successful as we were.

I, Joan Fischer, leave already spoken for.

I, Bruce Pratt, leave to make my mark in the world.

I, Donald Putnam, leave, destination unknown.

I, Nancy Putnam, leave directly behind my brother.

I, Kay Richardson, leave my title of Prom Queen to whoever may earn it next year.

I, William Robar, leave my newly acquired friends at G. H. S.

I, Marsha Roney, leave my poetic license to Michael Nault.

I, Patricia Ryerson, leave my fur-lined potrozibie.

I, Nancy Simoneau, leave to become another Clara Barton.

I, John Wheelden, leave my office as class president to a worthy Junior.

I, Richard Williams, leave the basketball team with most reluctance.

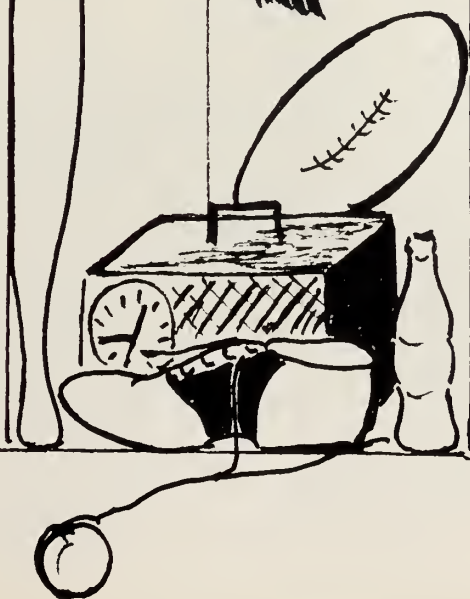

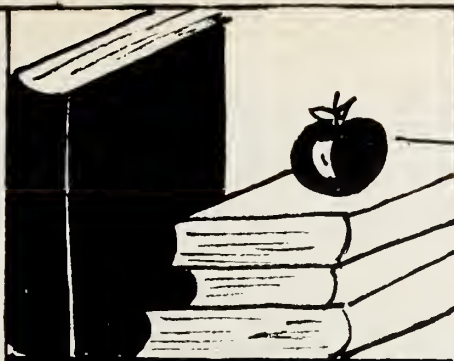

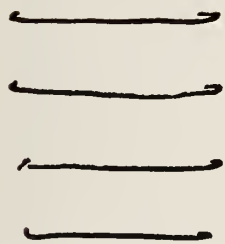

I, Mitchell Zastawny, leave my quiet manner to Robert Ford.

I, Dale Waltz, leave shortly after I came.

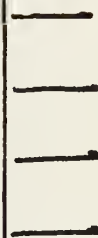

I, Linda Ohman, leave a year's supply of life savers to the Junior Class.

I, Gail Bousquet, leave, waiting for my "ship" to come in.

Field Hockey

This year, for the first time, we were fortunate enough to have a field hockey team. Under the coaching of Mrs. Anderson the team did an excellent job. The members of the team were: Suellyn Pond, captain, Linda Darling, Carol Cross, Joan Lundgren, Pam Perkins, Norma Dannenhauer, Marilyn Wenc, Carol Amour, Nancy Hospod, Holly Clark, Loretta Benoit, Beth Fallon, Jean Benoit, Marie Danielson, Maida Somerville, Charlotte Heffernan, and Ann Meany.
